Task 3

Questions 11-15

Read about Nathan Hunt.

For questions 11-15, complete the form with one or two words in each space.

Write your answer only here in this exam booklet. There is an example at the beginning (0).

Meet Nathan Hunt

If you travel on the London Underground, you have probably seen a poster of 'Moonlight', the painting, which has brought the artist, Nathan Hunt, to the international scene. I interviewed him in his stone house in the town of Gap in southern France.

Why had he chosen to live here? "People often say 'Why do you, a Londoner, want to live here?'. I came when I was hitchhiking as a student, and I fell in love with the countryside, and especially the light. Anyway, home is about feelings, not places."

After graduating from university, he came here to live and paint. Wasn't this a waste of a university education? "Probably. But studying architecture gave me discipline. It brought structure to my painting."

Was it difficult at the beginning? "There was a big demand for people to teach English and I got a job as a teacher in Gap, and I've been here ever since. Painting is for weekends."

I look at the paintings in the atelier. "They sell for around £10,000. The most I received was £30,000 for 'Evening Beer'. But it's difficult for me to sell my paintings. They're my children. It broke my heart to sell 'Goatherd'. But this painting, 'Shepherdess', is not for sale. I will always have it with me in my studio."

I leave Nathan's house, stop for an 'evening beer' in the village bar and wait for 'moonlight' far from the London Underground.
