6 Dear Ms Geller,

Unfortunately, I have to tell you that I cannot be your dog walker anymore. I like your dog a lot but he annoys me and I can't deal with his behaviour anymore. All the best

Jana

B Needy.

C Tired.

7 Len,

I haven't seen you for a while. Are you doing anything this evening? We could go out together and have a few laughs like we used to. 8 Paul,

Help! I'm desperate! I can't do my maths homework and I don't know what to do. I haven't got the time to come to your place so you can explain it to me. Can I copy your homework? I'd rather take a risk and have the same homework as you than get another bad mark tomorrow.

Meet Leona Wilkinson

Do you water your flowers regularly, but they die anyway? Your problem has been solved. Leona Wilkinson has published a book called Gardening for Dummies.

I interviewed Leona, Lennie to her friends and family, at the Royal Ballet Studio in London. She is currently working on her new role in Swan Lake. "A lot of people seemed rather surprised when my book came out," she says. "But ballet can be quite demanding and at 24, when I started getting more serious roles, I realised I needed something to get rid of the stress. I tried some usual things like drawing, but then I remembered what my granddad once told me. He believed that flowers are our true friends in joy or sadness. And it works for me."

Because her father was a journalist, the family moved a lot. When Leona was six years old, her parents decided to send her back to England. They wanted her to get a proper education and take ballet classes.

"I came to live with my grandparents. They had a beautiful house in Devon. It was surrounded by a big garden full of daffodils in springtime." Actually, Leona's grandfather was a keen gardener. "He taught me everything about various kinds of flowers, especially tulips – his favourites, but I've always liked roses best. Call me crazy, but I give them nicknames. I call one 'Pink Lady'.

Leona's book on gardening has reached the best-seller list. At the age of 27, she is not only a successful ballet dancer with the Royal Ballet but also a successful author. Who knows what she will be into when she turns 32 and her professional career ends? Maybe knitting or...? Whatever it is, she'll probably write a book about it.
