Task 1

Questions 1-5

Match each message (1-5) and its meaning (A-F).

There is one letter that you do not need.

Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

There is an example at the beginning (0→G).

- 0 When you come to London, there's no need for you to book into a hotel. You can sleep at my place.
- 1 It says on the ticket that the performance starts at 8 o'clock. Don't be late as usual because they won't let anyone in once the show starts.
- 2 What time do we need to be in front of the museum? Do we have to take our books? Please, let me know. I don't have any details.
- 3 I'm really sorry you didn't contact me earlier. Unfortunately, I have already sold all my 3rd year books. But ask Linda Miles. I think she is selling hers as well.
- 4 Whatever you need to know about this university, I'm here for you. Just make a list of things you want to know. I'm sure I will be able to give you all the information you need.
- 5 There's no need to feel bad about not going to the theatre with me. But thanks for calling me on time. I can still ask someone else to come along.

- A Don't be sorry.
- B You're late.
- C You should call me earlier.
- D I need more information.
- E Come on time.
- F I can answer all your questions.
- G Stay with me.

Task 2

Questions 6-10

You will read five emails.

For each question (6-10), choose the correct answer (A, B or C).

Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

6 Hi, Jacques!

This time next week I'll finally be in Paris. I've already packed everything I need. I've also got two guide books to study during the flight. My list of places to visit is really long. So, if I run out of money, perhaps you could give me a job at your restaurant. I might even learn more about famous French cuisine.

See you soon!

Richard

Why is Richard going to Paris?

- A To work there.
- B To study there.
- C To see the sights.

7 Dear all,

Here are some new details about our trip to Italy. We'll be in Venice on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Our original plan was to visit the Doge's Palace on Sunday. As it is closed that weekend, we'll have to go there immediately after visiting the Murano glass factory. This means that you will have some extra free time on Sunday to explore Venice or enjoy a gondola ride.

Tia

When will they visit the palace?

- A On Friday.
- B On Saturday.
- C On Sunday.

8 Hi!

I'm sorry, but I won't be able to come to your wedding anniversary. I've already booked a week in a lodge at 3000 metres. You know I always go fishing on the river at the end of July, but this year it was either a relaxing week by the sea, at a nice spa, or trekking. Please, don't be angry!

Mat

Where will Mat spend his summer holiday?

- A In the mountains.
- B At the seaside.
- C At the spa.

9 Jaz,

I know that we all agreed to tidy the flat together before the party. Lilly promised to clean the bathroom. You agreed to be in charge of dirty dishes and I'm supposed to bring the food from "Easy Snacks". I don't think I'll be able to do what I promised unless you pick me up at the office. Will you?
Stella

What does Stella want Jaz to do?

- A Buy something to eat.
- B Wash the dishes.
- C Give her a ride.

10 Milly!

They called from Doctor Miller's office to inform you that they had to change your 10:15 appointment tomorrow because Doctor Miller has an operation at 11:30. Don't forget you must leave earlier if you want to get there on time at 9:45. There's a lot of traffic in the morning, so I suggest leaving at 9:15 at the latest.
Dad

When will Milly see doctor Miller?

- A At quarter past nine.
- B At quarter to ten.
- C At quarter past ten.

Task 3

Questions 11-15

Read the text on the next page.

For each question (11-15), choose the correct answer (A, B, or C).

Mark your answer on the answer sheet.

Tom Bernick A New Kid on the Block

When I was young, I thought I could change the world. But I ended up getting my education first and even a job before I became an environmentalist. Today young people no longer have to wait until they leave school. They can make real change now. Sometimes they just need to know it's possible.

I'm writing about Tom Bernick, a young activist. He was in sixth grade, and was angry because the fast-food shops around the school were selling food and drinks in plastic containers, with plastic straws, forks etc. He complained about it to a reporter he met at an animal cruelty protest who agreed to publish an article about it in the local newspapers. Soon after, the shops began to use recycled packaging.

Since then, Tom has completed many projects. Training local high-school students to become 'Green Ambassadors' is one of his favourites. After three years of practice, they are now going to plant urban gardens to provide fresh natural foods for the poor and homeless. At last, he's finding time to finish the book about his projects.

Tom has always wanted to participate in the 'Students for Sustainability' club. In only two years the club has managed to plan and carry out many activities. They've planted over 7,000 trees on their own so far and he is going to get involved with this project. The club has also managed to improve the local lake's habitat for wildlife and water quality.

Tom needs financial back-up for his numerous projects. Although Poke Land Trust's support has never been stronger, he's been discussing possible partnership with the Watershed Institute and he's also planning an event with the Clean-a-Thon organisation to attract new partners. Maybe you would like to attend this event or join the Club?

11 When did the author of the text become an environmental activist?

- A As a teenager.
- B As a student.
- C As an adult.

12 What did Tom do to change the behaviour of local shop owners?

- A He talked to the media.
- B He organised a protest.
- C He wrote an article.

13 What is Tom working on now?

- A He's training students.
- B He's growing food.
- C He's writing a book.

14 What is Tom going to do next?

- A Clean the lake.
- B Plant trees.
- C Start a club.

15 Which institution is Tom's partner in his projects?

- A Clean-a-Thon.
- B Poke Land Trust.
- C Watershed Institute.

The StarsMonocular camera – a camera that looks like a telescope

Let's face it – taking good photos is not as easy as it seems. You need good equipment that costs a small fortune. Not everyone can afford it. And even those that do, (0) _____.

So (16) _____ you might ask? It's called StarsMonocular and it is a much cheaper alternative to traditional camera equipment. It is a tiny, super-high-quality monocular camera that fits both your pocket and your budget.

The team behind this amazing product was tired of carrying around heavy, expensive cameras. Although (17) _____, they created a brand new monocular that is both easy to carry around and affordable. And (18) _____ to let everyone make amazing photos. You can carry it anywhere – it is so light (19) _____. And you don't have to worry about it when travelling, as StarsMonocular will always fit in your bag.

Because technology was advancing so fast, the team behind StarsMonocular used modern equipment, optical programs on the fastest computers, and high-tech designs to create a telescope camera that was as good as those from the most expensive brands.

It is now offered to everybody (20) _____ – everyone from campers, hikers, tourists and even parents who want to see what their kids are up to from a distance.

- A when it makes great photos
- B what is the solution
- C you won't even feel it
- D who wants quality without paying a fortune
- E they are quite young and without much experience
- F so the StarsMonocular was born
- G don't always carry their equipment because it's heavy

Social media

Researchers have found that, in general, people use social media to connect (0) ____ people who are posting positive updates. A new study suggests when people are in a bad mood, they are more likely to actively search social networking sites like Facebook to find friends who are (21) ____ even worse than they are.

Also, according to recent studies, people who spend a lot of time on Facebook feel more frustrated, angry and lonely – probably (22) ____ of all the happy updates from friends that make them feel inadequate.

Generally, people look for the positive on social media sites. But if they're feeling down, they'll look for people on Facebook who (23) ____ a bad day or who aren't as good at presenting themselves positively, just to feel better. Those who need a self-esteem boost, probably won't look (24) ____ the people who have a great new job or just got married.

Nevertheless, one of the great advantages of social network sites is that they allow people to manage their moods by choosing (25) ____ they want to compare themselves to. Also, they offer tools and activities that may help older adults feel more important and less alone.

Money or happiness?

Many people think that money brings happiness, (0) _____ that is not true. The USA is the richest country in the world but Americans are not the happiest people.

A good example of how money can change your life for the worse is Collin Norris, who won £24 million on the lottery two years ago. At first, his life was fantastic and he had a lot of fun. He spent a large part of his winnings on a big villa and he bought six cars. The problems, (26) _____, started sooner than expected. His "friends" began to ask him for money and he frequently (27) _____ arguments with his wife, so they eventually divorced.

Collin (28) _____ a big mistake. He tried to buy happiness. Now he is desperate (29) _____ he still has a lot of money. "I feel lonely. My life was better when I didn't have so much. If I (30) _____ not so rich, I would probably have true friends."

So, what can make us happy? Other people, not money!
