Nowadays, the act of reading can take place in various forms. With conventional books, on one hand, which have been creating moments of joy for hundreds of years that for some are beyond compare, there are also digital books, a spark from the future that many find a more indulging solution.

On the one hand, there are many benefits of replacing paper books with the digital ones. What's most important, it's cost-effective. Many sites, nowadays, offer a free download of books of different genres and the money you used to waste on paper editions could rather be spent on pleasures like travelling. Moreover, owning an e-reader is more environmentally friendly than purchasing dozens of paperback editions every month. If book lovers stopped stocking their home shelves with all editions of Harry Potter or Stephen King, they would save trees thus preventing the loss of oxygen and fresh air.

On the other hand, the joy one feels when reading traditional books is irreplaceable. Firstly, the sound of turning pages, that is soothing just when you think of it, is most readers' fad. Not to mention the smell of old editions that e-books don't provide. Secondly, most people would agree there is nothing like lying on the beach with a paper book in your hands. It's a get-away from the digital era that is controlling our daily lives. Not only do you rest your eyes with the paper but you also don't worry about the expensive gadget that might disappear from your bag.

All in all, even though reading e-books is budget-friendly and, at the same time, a new-age solution preventing forests from disappearing, reading paperback forms of books offers the abundance of cozy moments and joy. Personally, I opt for the tradition in form of a good old paperback novel that would comfort me at the end of the day and drive my imagination in mysterious ways.

Nowadays, reading comes in various forms. While some people claim that all books should be digital, others claim that traditional books make the experience of reading more pleasing.

What's most important, it costs less. Many sites, nowadays, offer a free download of books of different genres and the money you wasted on paper editions, you could spend on pleasures like travelling. Moreover, owning an e-reader is better for the environment than purchasing dozens of paperback editions every month. If book lovers stop stocking their home shelves with all editions of Harry Potter or Stephen King, they would save trees and prevent the loss of oxygen and fresh air.

On the other hand, nothing can replace the joy of reading traditional books. Firstly, the sound of turning pages can be so relaxing and the smell of old editions is magical. Moreover, most people would agree there is nothing like lying on the beach with a paper book in your hands. It's a get-away from the digital era that is controlling our daily lives. You rest your eyes with the paper and you also don't worry about the expensive gadget that might disappear from your bag.

All in all, like everything else in life, e-books and traditional books both have advantages and disadvantages. Personally, I would always go for the tradition in form of a good old paperback novel that would comfort me at the end of the day and drive my imagination in mysterious ways.

Today many different kind of books exist like paper book, e-book and audio book on YouTube. While some say that traditional books should be replaced by e-books, others say that e-books spoil the pleasure of reading.

The most important thing and first of all, you can save money. On many sites today you can find to download books without paying and they have so many different kinds of books. With that money you can buy something else that you need. One point is that, e-reader is better for the nature because a lot of trees have to be cut to make paper for all that books.

On the other hand, to read traditional books is so much better for many people. Firstly, when you are reading real paper book you feel it in your hand and you smell the paper if it is new or old. Most people like laying on the beach with a paper book in their hands. You dont need charge your phone.

All in all, like everything else in life, e-books and traditional books both have advantages and disadvantages. Advantages are free books and better for the nature and disadvantages are you need phone or tablet and don't feel the paper like with normal books.

People can read on mobile phone what they want and I like can reading on my phone because books is boring and you can't lie like you want it is very uncamfortble to read. My friends says that e-books is not boring and it have much many functions then boring papers book. One papers book is just one and on Kindle you have hundred books and it go with you allways. When you reading on Kindle you can take pose what you want when you lie and you touch it and the new page you reading whith no problem. When is dark night you can read when people sleeping because he have lights and you see in dark. E-books is much many good for people and economic. All world is electronic and it is much more good for them. Now we having solar panels and electrical is for no pay. Who have big house can put much many papers books in it but who have small house have problems like this and much many people having small house then big house. E-books is super because when you having small apartment you put how much you want on Kindle one shelf.
